

Mary Ruth McCulley
3108 Harmony
Amarillo, Texas 79106

April 7, 2005

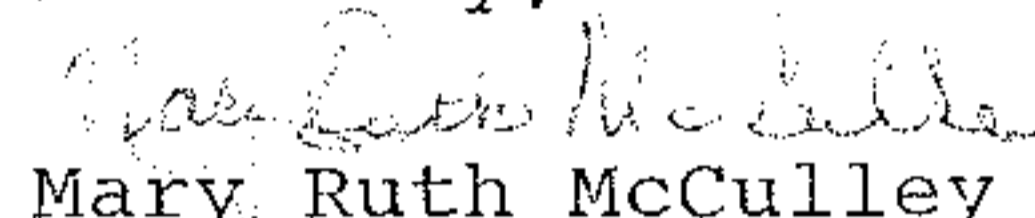

To Whom It May Concern:

Joshua Dumbleton has served Polk Street United Methodist Church, Amarillo, Texas, with distinction. His technical facility, knowledge of repertory and registration have been most admirable. Not only is he authoratative in playing appropriate voluntaries, but also sensitive in all facets of choral accompaniment.

Energy, creativity, and inspiration in hymn introductions and harmonizations lend stimulus to congregational singing. He is in complete control of himself and his instrument. Preludes, Offer-tories, and Postludes are carefully chosen to enhance corporate worship..

Joshua has played in the Amarillo Chapter A.G.O. programs, as well as appearing as guest organist in numerous events. He is regarded with much esteem as a splendid young musician, professional in manner, and always well-groomed. I think I've never known a more disciplined student who practices faithfully and carefully, using fine editions for scrutiny and well-documented notes. He pursues his personal goals with intensity and integrity. Joshua has my unqualified recommendation in music ministry and performance.

Sincerely,

Mary Ruth McCulley
Prof. Emeritus, WTAMU

Organist Emeritus
Polk St. Methodist Church