

Josh Dumbleton is an exciting young artist and performer. He is technically proficient and musically mature. Using creative registrations and historical performance practices Josh captures the intent of composers of all periods of music. He communicates the message of the music to the listener. He is certain to become one of the most outstanding performers of this generation of organists. Not only is he a fine recitalist but he is also a creative service player for worship. I highly recommend him and know he is worthy of any consideration you might give him.

Josh Dumbleton is an exciting young artist and performer. He is technically proficient and musically mature. Using creative registrations and historical performance practices Josh captures the intent of composers of all periods of music. He communicates the message of the music to the listener. He is certain to become one of the most outstanding performers of this generation of organists. Not only is he a fine recitalist but he is also a creative service player for worship. He is extremely professional in carrying out his duties as Associate Director of Music. He is extremely professional dealing with all ages in our Music Ministry Program. He has developed a recital series to showcase our new Letourneau Pipe Organ. I highly recommend him and know he is worthy of any consideration you might give him.

Dr. William J. Weisser
Minister of Music
Edenton Street UMC
228 West Edenton Street
Raleigh, NC 27603
919-832-7535 ex.218