Subject: Re: Good Morning

Tried to send an animated congratulations card but somehow it never went past my computer screen. What is was attempting to say was: Wow! Wonderful!! Marvelous!!! I particularly liked the Barber and Dandreu pieces on Sunday's concert program. I hope that you are keeping in touch with your major professor at your alma mater in relation to your growing expertise in your field. He/she will love the 'strokes' of hearing from such a success as you and he/she can provide you with contacts as your career grows. I am sure all of us would miss you if you were to leave (not our/my wish), but at your age and with your abilities, you have much to aspire to. Again, thank you for a very moving concert last Sunday.
